Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Music Club of Greenville was founded in 1906 to help encourage a greater interest in and appreciation for music in the community; and

WHEREAS, throughout its history, the Club has promoted the appreciation of music and its performance in various ways, including the presentation of the first radio program broadcast from Greenville, sponsorship of the formation and first concert of the Greenville Symphony, and support of musical organizations in the community; and

WHEREAS, in addition to supporting music organizations through participation and donations, the members of the Club engage in humanitarian efforts and provide scholarships to high school students who plan to major in music; and

WHEREAS, this year, The Music Club of Greenville is celebrating 100 years of making music and supporting its performance while enhancing the quality of life of the residents of the Upstate.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim November 13, 2006, as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to celebrate the many contributions of The Music Club of Greenville and its members over the past 100 years.
